

14.11.23 : the Head Office of the TISC IP Office held an online workshop on the ASPI and ARDI databases in cooperation with the World Intellectual Property Organization.

representatives

12 representatives of the TISC network were present information materials informational materials were provided regarding the registration of a profile for access to databases consultation

an analysis and consultation was carried out during the selection of patent databases